July 21, 2014

The 2014 Sour Mash Memorial Golf Tournament is presented by the Wood County Rotary Club and the Parkersburg Rotary Club.

Honoree:
Bob
Wallbrown

A 1949 Parkersburg High School graduate, Bob attended Marietta College before joining the Naval Cadet program where he earned his wings and commission. He transferred to the Marine Corps, where he served as a pilot and instructor for advanced jet pilot training. He served in that role until his discharge in 1956 as a Captain.

Upon completion of his tour of duty in 1956, Bob joined Tri-State Roofing & Sheet Metal Company in Davisville, West Virginia as a Superintendent. He became Tri-State's President, serving in that capacity until 1993, when he joined The Mountain Company as a Vice President. Wallbrown was also President of Roof Management & Service Company.

An avid golfer, Bob played in the first Sour Mash Open in 1971 and held the distinction of playing in 37 consecutive Sour Mash Open tournaments thereafter. Bob was the Low Net winner of the tournament in 1974 and 1994.

One of Bob's fondest memories on the golf course was during the 1995 Sour Mash Open. Holding the distinction of Low Net winner at the 1994 Sour Mash Open, Bob was honored to play in the featured foursome alongside Parkersburg Country Club Professional, Larry Martin and Professional Golf Association star, Bruce Lietzke.

Bob was a member of the Parkersburg Area Jaycees, the American Legion, and a longtime member of the Parkersburg Elks Club.
